MUSEUM OF THE UPPER LAKES

Once a battle raged over what is now the southern Georgian Bay resort town of Wasaga Beach. To mark the historic event, the Museum of the Upper Lakes on Nancy Island has preserved the charred hull of the H.M. Schooner Nancy which was sunk there in the War of 1812-14. In an electronic theatre, the story of the Nancy and her crew is depicted through sound and light. The history of shipping on the Great Lakes is the theme in the museum building. This parkland historic site consists of two small islands where visitors can walk on shady paths, or on the grass, spin a ship's wheel or climb a lighthouse. Open 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. daily, mid-May to Labour Day, then from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. until the Canadian Thanksgiving.

KAUFMAN HOUSE

This beautiful Georgian Estate is the superb setting for Kaufman's furniture showplace — 20 rooms, custom decorated in the latest trend setting style and furnishings.

You are invited to visit Kaufman House anytime — follow the private road just west of our factory off Highway 26 West of Collingwood.

HISTORIC NAVAL AND MILITARY ESTABLISHMENTS

Overlooking Penetanguishene Bay at the end of Church Street in Penetanguishene (follow the signs), the Naval and Military Establishments recreates another era — that of the early 19th century, where soldiers, sailors, and settlers lived in an isolated British outpost. Visitors to this historic, reconstructed site can explore offices, dwellings, barracks, a storehouse and the Officers' Quarters, an original structure. Each of the 17 buildings is completely furnished with period antiques. The site is open from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. daily, mid-May to Labour Day.
